Mayor Grant Nielson opened the meeting and announced that the hearing had been advertised according to law and was for the purpose of receiving public comment on a language change to the Delta City Zoning Ordinance concerning placing temporary structures in the Public/Quasi Public zone.

City Attorney Warren Peterson commented on the proposed zone change, stating that strict guidelines on time limits should be set. There was discussion on the undesirability of utilizing the Public/Quasi Public zones for other mobile type structures. The City Attorney was instructed to write the ordinance to state that each application must be made to the Council, each temporary structure must be approved annually and that a maximum time limit of 3 years would be set.

Mayor Grant Nielson closed the hearing at 7:10 p.m.
